

Dear User

Thanks for entrusting THEIA with your images. We see that your documents are safe and no privacy issue is encountered. Please refer this document for the Privacy Statement put forward by THEIA:

Privacy Statement

THEIA only collects images, and no other data. The images are processed and all kinds of data extraction are done with the user's consent. The images and the data extracted shall not be sold or transferred to any third party and will be used only for improving our search. The same standard of privacy protection shall be provided to all users of THEIA irrespective of their location or time of usage.

The user's images shall not be accessed by any other user neither by accident nor on purpose. THEIA users are the sole owners of the images and the extracted data.